THE MUSEUM OF ART + LIGHT
You're Invited to
Midnight in Málaga
An Annual Fundraiser + Debut of New Exhibitions
Picasso: Art in Motion
EMULATION: Selections from Art Blocks 500
Interference: The Interactive Art of Daniel Rozin
Picasso on Paper
May 2, 2026

Dear Friends of Museum of Art + Light,

On Saturday, May, 2, 2025, the Museum of Art + Light will be hosting the remarkable Midnight in Málaga* – MoA+L's Celebration of Art + Light gala celebrating the public opening of Picasso: Art in Motion in its U.S. Debut and its only home from May 2 – November 2, 2026, all supported by the Picasso Administration.

Coupled with Picasso Art in Motion will be a layering of exhibitions throughout 2026 that speak to many ends of the digital-and fine-arts spectrum including EMULATION: Selections from the Art Blocks 500 featuring ten talented artists celebrating creative ingenuity within the constraints of on-chain production; Interference: The Interactive Art of Daniel Rozin; Picasso Works on Paper; Polychrome Ritual – Barry Anderson Solo Exhibition; and Generation to Generation: Conversing with Kindred Technologies developed independently by Sasha Stiles and Nathaniel Stern, and a few more surprises…

This explosion of work marks a defining moment in our museum as the world's first contemporary art institution dedicated to immersive, digital, and physical art experiences from its very inception. We invite you to join us as both a guest and a valued sponsor for this exciting event. With over 500 prominent community members, artists, cultural leaders, and national collaborators expected in attendance, the evening promises to be a celebration of creativity, innovation, and the boundless potential of the arts.

All funds raised during Midnight in Málaga—and any additional donations—will directly advance our educational and arts programming, safeguard our permanent collection, and fuel the creation of future exhibitions.

Our vision is bold: to become the world's leading institution at the intersection of art, creative exploration, and digital technology. By partnering with us, you help welcome visitors from around the globe to experience transformative, immersive exhibitions that inspire curiosity, conversation, and cultural connection.

We would be honored to partner with you or your organization as a sponsor or table host for this landmark event. Together, we can make a lasting impact on the creative lives of our community.

Thank you for considering this opportunity to support the future of art and innovation. Warmest Regards,

Erin Dragotto
Executive Director
